NEW HOME FOR C. OF C. DISCUSSED

Efforts to Be Made to Better Telephone Service

The regular weekly meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday with five new members added, as follows: S. J. Kavacevich and C. Pelley, of the Golden West Cafe; C. F. Farquhar, E. H. Brooks, and E. Mosk.

The committee in charge of the change in time of directors' meetings, reported that after conferences with a majority of the board it was deemed advisable to leave the meeting hour at 4:30 p. m., as at present.

The committee on new location for the Chamber of Commerce offices reported they had received an offer from Sam Rappaport to lease Store No. 1 in the new Rappaport building for $50 per month, $600 for the year. This room is 16x66 feet. The communication was filed with a vote to remain in present quarters until the board can secure suitable quarters, or possibly arrange for a building of their own.

Secretary Gadeky was asked to use his influence to secure better telephone service and hasten the installation of local telephones without unnecessary delays.

Director Benj. Harwood handed in his resignation, stating that he would be away for a two months' vacation and felt that someone here should be elected to fill his position as a director of the chamber. The resignation was accepted with regrets and Mr. Harwood was tendered a vote of sincere thanks for the good work he has accomplished while serving Torrance as a director the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Haylos of Portola avenue left Monday night for their old home in Ohio, on a business trip. They expect to be gone two months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Newby and children motored to Los Angeles Sunday and were dinner guests of Mr. Newby's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newby.

John McDonald of 218th street has resigned from the Union Tool shops and gone into the hardware business at Compton with his brother, Dean McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richart of Gramercy avenue entertained at dinner Tuesday evening the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harmer's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harmer's old Moat and son, of Hanford, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gilliland, who have lived for the past six months at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary S. Perkins, of South Gramercy, have returned to their home in Oakland.

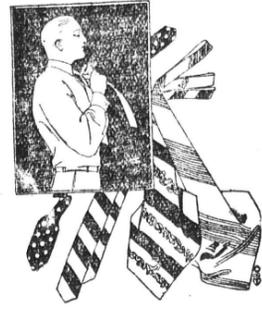

Harlan Cairns, young son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Huggard, 1924 Andree avenue, fell from his scooter Monday evening and broke his wrist.

Mrs. D. McDonald and son, John McDonald, of 218th street returned last week from a motor trip to Monterey and Watsonville, where they visited Miss Dunn, Mrs. McDonald's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hemstreet and three sons arrived last week from Coldwater, Kansas, and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hemstreet's cousin, Mrs. J. O. Bishop, Andree avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Hemstreet were Torrance residents five years ago.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bell were Mrs. Bell's parents and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Barth, and daughters, Agnes, Bess and Esther; her uncle and aunt, John Stein and Miss Stein, all of Long Beach; and her aunt, Mrs. Mary Kast, of Merced.
